

2019 Seymour Oktoberfest Stein Hoist

Chosen contestants are to report at 3:00pm to sign-in the day of the competition.

Rules: Participants must hold a full 1 liter beer stein (1/2 liter for women's division) with a straight arm in front of them. The male or female contestant who holds up the steins for the longest time will win. It is that simple! If a participant bends his or her arm or spills any amount of beer, they will be eliminated from competition. We will have professional stein hoisting referees on hand to explain what is prohibited and judge the competition.

Contestants: All contestants will have to be 21 years or older. We will have a male and female division with 12 competitors in each division.

Location: Seymour Oktoberfest Biergarten, located at 2nd & Walnut Street

Time: Saturday, October 5th, 2019. Chosen contestants are to report to at 3:00 PM to sign-in. The competition will begin to ramp up at 3:30 PM and the official start will be at 4:00 PM. The women's division will be first followed by the men.

Liability: Each contestant will be required to review the rules before competing. Also, each contestant must agree to the hold harmless agreement. Keep in mind this is not a drinking game. In fact, you will be eliminated for drinking during the competition.

Registration: To register to be included in the first 12 (maximum) contestants for each division, sign-up online through September 30th, 2019. The first 12 names submitted will hoist to compete at the 2019 Seymour Oktoberfest. If you are one of the first 12 submitted, you will be contacted within 1-2 days.
